FINE HAND-MADE

HAVANA CIGARS

Kepler's Wabash, St. L. and P. No. 1.

Kepler's Wabash, St. L. and P. No. 3.
Kepler's Wabash, St. L. and P. No. 4.

SEEK NO FURTHER FOR FINE CIGARS.

KEPLER'S GREAT WABASH LINE OF FINE HAND-MADE HAVANAS is the production we place before the smoking public, and we guarantee these cigars to be just what we say they are; and we boldly say that at their prices they have no superiors in the market, nor do we intend they shall have. The W., St. L. & P. No. 1 is a large 5-inch hand-made Havana, made by experts, of the best Havana we have been able to find in the market. No 2 is a very fine hand-made 4½ inch Havana, and as a ten-cent or three for 25 cent cigar No. 2 has no superior. No 3 is the purest Havana hand-made 5 cent cigar that we or any one else can produce for the price, and we guarantee No. 3 equal in merit to two-thirds of the 10-cent cigars in the market. We challenge any expert to cut to pieces No. 3 and examine himself as to the truth of what we have said. No. 4 is a fine 5 cent or 6 for 25 cent cigar, and contains more fine stock than nine-tenths of the cigars intended to be retailed at 5 cents straight. Fine cigars are better, richer, and more fragrant in smoke when fresh, than when old and dried out. We use no cheap, worthless flavoring extracts in our cigars, but we depend alone for their merit upon the fine stock of which they are made and the workmanship of expert cigar makers. We respectfully solicit a trial. Every cigar warranted a perfect smoker. ANDREW KEPLER,

Newly Married Couples.

From the Golden Age.

It is the happiest and most virtuous state of society in which the husband and wife set out together, and with perfect sympathy of soul, graduate all their expenses, plans, calculations and desires with reference to their present means and to their future and common interest.

Nothing delights man more than to enter the neat little tenement of the young people who within perhaps two or three years, without any resources but their own knowledge of industry, have joined heart and hand, and engage to share together the responsibilities, duties, interests, trials and pleasures of life. The industrious wife is cheerfully employing her hands in domestic duties, putting her house in order or mending her husband's clothes, or preparing the dinner, while perhaps the little darling sits prattling on the floor or lies sleeping in the cradle, and everything seems preparing to welcome the happiest of husbands and the best of fathers when he shall come home from his toil to enjoy the sweets of his little paradise.

This is the true domestic pleasure. Health, contentment, love, abundance, and bright prospects are all here. But it has become a prevalent sentiment that a man must acquire his fortune before he marries; that the wife must have no sympathy nor share with him in the pursuit of it—in which most of the pleasure truly consists—and the young married people must set out with as large and expensive an establishment as is becoming those who have been wedded for twenty years. This is very unhappy; it fills the community with bachelors, who are waiting to make their fortunes, endangering virtue, promoting vice; destroys the true economy and design of the domestic institution, and it promotes inefficiency among females, who are expecting to be taken up by fortunes and passively sustained without any care or concern on their part, and thus many a wife becomes, as a gentleman once remarked, not a "helpmeet," but a "helpeat."

A Chinese Rip Van Winkle.

Never heard the Chinese version of Rip Van Winkle, have you? The Chinese Rip was a patriarch named Wang Chic. He was gathering firewood one day on the mountains of Ku Chow, when he found a grotto where some old men were playing chess. As he watched them one gave him what looked like a date stone, telling him to put it in his mouth. No sooner had he tasted it than he ceased to feel hunger and thirst. By and by one of the players said; "It is long since you came here, you should go home now." Wang Chic went to take up his ax and found the handle had mouldered into dust. Undismayed, however, he went home, and found that centuries had passed away since he went out wood cutting. Not a vestige of his kinsfolk remained. He retreated to a cell in the mountains, and devoting himself to religious exercises finally attained immortality.

A Vain Hope.

A Russian nobleman lay on his death bed. One of his curious fancies was to have his wife robe herself in her wedding dress and stand by his bed side. It was a very natural bit of sentiment and in the course of an hour the beautiful woman stood by his bed side arrayed in the garments of twenty years ago. "Ah," he said, "you looked so beautiful in that dress that I hoped when the angel came he might take a fancy to you and carry you off instead of me."

It is rather a misfortune for the unmarried woman of a certain age to be in so-called easy circumstances. Having no real troubles, they create imaginary ones. What miseries, mental and bodily, do they not themselves experience; and what vexations and troubles do they not inflict upon their friends? It is a praiseworthy feature of the present day that great endeavors are made to find employment for females, to enlarge the bounds of their pursuits, and to supply them with pastimes and amusements calculated to arouse interest and to foster physical exertion.

IF you are going to Chicago, stop at Mrs. M. E. Willenburg's boarding house at 46 South Sangamon street, where you will be furnished every accommodation at $1 and $3 per day.

BEST IS CHEAPEST!

LEWIS' CONDENSED BAKING POWDER

STRICTLY PURE!

We will give $1000.00 for any Alum or other adulteration found in this POWDER.

Indorsed by the Brooklyn Board of Health, and by the best chemists in the United States.

It is STRONGER than any Yeast Powder in the world.

It NEVER FAILS to make light bread when used as directed.

It is COMMENDED by every housekeeper who has given it a fair trial.

It is an entirely NEW INVENTION, without any of the bad qualities of soda or saleratus, yeast or other baking powders.

It has in itself a tendency to sustain and nourish the system.

Good food makes good health; and health is improved or impaired in proportion as the food we eat is nutritious or otherwise.

LEWIS' BAKING POWDER always makes good food.

One can of this is worth two of any other baking compound.

It makes bread whiter and richer.

More than half the complaints of bad flour arise from the use of common baking powders, which often make the best of flour turn out dark bread.

The most delicate persons can eat food prepared with it without injury.

Nearly every other baking powder is adulterated and is absolutely injurious.

This is made from Refined Grape Cream of Tartar, and is PERFECTLY PURE.

It makes the BEST, lightest, and most nutritious

BREAD, BISCUIT, CAKE, CRULLERS, BUCKWHEAT, INDIAN, AND FLANNEL CAKES.

A single trial will prove the superiority of this Powder.

TUESDAY EVENING, MARCH 16, 1880.

[illegible] peaches are in full bloom.

[illegible] and Edmonds is the latest [illegible].

CHICAGO markets of yesterday were weak, and prices generally ruled lower than on Saturday.

THEODORE THOMAS has left Cincinnati and gone back to New York, where he will again take the leading place in musical circles.

THE New York Sun of yesterday devoted nearly a page to a sketch of David Davis, and stated that "there are many reasons why he would make a strong candidate for president, especially against Grant."

DE BOER, the Woodford county brute, will make his last appearance on any stage at Pontiac, to-morrow, at high noon. If the rope does its whole duty, De Boer's exit will give the greatest satisfaction, not only to those present at the entertainment, but to the community in general.

ANOTHER CANNON SHOT

The Republicans of Urbana held a primary on Saturday evening, to appoint delegates to the county convention. After a spirited contest the delegates were instructed for Hon. J. G. Cannon. The friends of Judge Smith worked hard to prevent a vote of instructions, but failed. The two large townships of Champaign and Urbana having instructed for Mr. Cannon, in spite of the most strenuous exertions on the part of Judge Smith's friends, it would seem that the handful of malcontents who have urged on his candidacy ought to be satisfied that the Republicans of the district are not with them. They ought to subside now, for the longer they keep up their puny warfare the harder will they be sat down on in the end. The Republicans of Champaign county, as far as they have had an opportunity of expressing their preferences, have put themselves in line with the party throughout the district, which is largely in favor of returning to Congress a representative who has shown himself to be able, honest, patriotic and industrious It would be a public calamity to retire such experienced congressmen as Mr. Cannon, for no better reason than that somebody else wanted to enjoy the honors and emoluments of the office for a time. The Republicans of the fourteenth district have come to appreciate this fact, and they have therefore but little patience with the efforts of Messrs. Macpherson, Bundy & Co.

A WRITER in the Boston Herald, in warning Western merchants against dealing in New York, makes this extraordinary statement:

The laws of New York have, for some time, permitted the arrest of persons upon grounds not permitted in any other State. The Judges of the City of New York grant these "orders of arrest" entirely upon ex parte statements, and upon grounds that would elsewhere be considered frivolous and irrelevant. When once arrested, months may elapse before a Western merchant can secure his release from Ludlow Street Jail. Many of the New York merchants employ a clerk known in their establishment as the "affidavit clerk." It is the business of this gentleman (?) to concoct affidavits that will meet every case where the customer of the house is in arrears in his accounts. Under perjurious charges, fixed by the "affidavit clerk," the Western merchant is thrown into Ludlow Street Jail, where he is kept until properly squeezed.

THE war on saloon keepers in the upper part of Pennsylvania promises to raise a breeze. In Washington county no licenses are granted, and the residents of Monongahela City go across the river and buy liquor at saloons in Alleghany county. The coal miners in the river pits get riotous after drinking, and then raise "Cain" at home.

HARDSHIPS OF RUSSIAN NEWSPAPERS.

The London Examiner says: "It is stated that the Golos will lose upward of 10,000 rubles through the issue of the order of the Minister of the Interior forbidding it to publish advertisements for a month. The report is questioned as to the intention of the Government to increase the liberty of the provincial press by allowing the editors to publish their journals before submitting them to the censorship of local authorities. At present the principal newspapers of St. Petersburg and Moscow are not examined by the Censor until they are already in the hands of the public; while, in the interior, not a line must be published without being previously scrutinized by the clerks of the Censorial department. The consequence is that, owing to the dilatoriness of the clerks, and the frequent alterations they make in the 'copy,' an article, or a piece of news is sometimes delayed in publication for a week or a fortnight. The Novoe Vremya now receives letters from its London correspondent regularly every day. The amount received last year by the Russian Postmaster-General for the delivery of newspapers exceeded 700,000 rubles. A few weeks ago the editors of the Ruski Mir, Messrs. Nebe and Dementieff, threw up their post suddenly, and refused to have anything more to do with the paper. The proprietor, in consequence, was compelled to suspend the issue of the journal, as no person can edit a newspaper in Russia without first obtaining permission from the Government, a formality that usually involves a delay of several weeks. M. Rapp has now expressed his intention of sueing his two editors for breach of contract, and in the meanwhile accepts the responsibility of the loss inflicted upon subscribers and advertisers by the suspension of the journal The Kievlanin, hitherto appearing four times a week, has commenced its career this month as a daily paper.'

HORATIO SEYMOUR does not see any necessity imposed on the Democratic party to nominate a New York man On some accounts, he thinks, it would be better for the party to choose a candidate from outside the State Any man who is at all mixed up with New York city politics is positively objectionable On this head Mr Seymour says

Once, when I was running for Governor, a man said to me, "You have not a friend in the city of New York." The reply was, "I am glad of it, for now I am sure they will all vote for me." The truth is, that a man had better have all the cliques of the city opposed to him than to have any one of them in his favor, as, in case there is no favoritism and he is identified with no clique all hands will be ready to turn in and vote for him on general principles when the election comes. I advised Stephen A. Douglass, when he was running for the presidency, to keep away from New York, since, if he appeared there under the auspices of any one faction, the rest of them would turn against him, and no man has ever been able to unite them. For the same reason I think Mr. Tilden has made a mistake as regards New York city, though, perhaps, I should hardly make the criticism, for he seems to have identified himself with a clique. and it has naturally brought down on him the criticism of the others

THE attempt to sail from Boston to Australia in the Golden Gate, a little craft of a ton and a half burden, resulted well-nigh fatally to all on board—all meaning only two, for that was the full number the tiny vessel was designed to hold. Capt. Burrill, the builder and owner of the Golden Gate, sailed from Boston last July, with one seaman, bound for Melbourne; but they encountered severe storms, the store of provisions was spoiled by water, and the two adventurers were in a famishing condition when they dropped anchor at a little settlement not far from Bahia, on the coast of Brazil. They were so exhausted as to be scarcely able to speak, but their emaciated faces told the story, and they were taken ashore and supplied with food and shelter.

THE agues down in the Indian Territory are in great danger of shaking all the orthodoxy out of the remnant of about 400 Poncas who are living there, as well as destroying their lives. White Eagle, their head chief, who is now in Washington, said to a reporter last week "I used to go to church and hear what the preacher said about punishment in a future world. It seems to us as if our punishment had come already. It seems as if they had thrown us into the midst of a great fire. It is hot. Our children and women die off, and even our cattle cannot live in the Indian Territory."

Of White Eagle's own family, his wife died in June last; a few weeks later one of his children died; three weeks after that another died; then another, and since that his fourth and last child has gone, and he himself has been sick with the chills. The Poncas belong further North, and evidently cannot stand the change of climate.

ATLANTA, GA., March 15.—The heaviest rains have fallen for the past four days that have been known in Georgia for years. All streams are very high, and overflows, which will damage crops, are reported.

A prominent citizen was arrested for threatening Rev. R. C. Foute, rector of St. Phillip's church, in the pulpit, Sunday, and going to church avowedly for that purpose. He accused Foute of causing a divorce between himself and wife.

WASHINGTON WHISPERS

DENVER, Col., March 15.—By a special dispatch to the Denver Republican information has just been received here of a terrible Indian massacre in the Blue Mountains, in Southwestern Colorado, during the early part of March. The telegram gives the names of the parties killed by Indians as Joe Lacome, Joe Chavers, Pat Kane, Bill Trintrom, Dave Slickhammer, and there were others whose names are not known. It appears that the men, composing a party of prospectors and miners, were out only a short time on a prospecting trip, and nothing was known regarding their fate until the accidental discovery of some of the bodies horribly mutilated.

The excitement now prevaling in the Animas Valley is intense. Further particulars are expected to-morrow. The Indians engaged in the massacre were Utes.

CHEYENNE, March 15.—The Daily Leader has received the following special from Big Horn Post Office, March 14, via Fort McKenny, March 15. Settlements to the north of us are in a great state of excitement because of the latest news regarding the Indians. Gen. Miles sends word from Fort Custer that the Crows have formed a treaty with the Sioux. Settlers to the north and west of Tongue River are coming into Goose Creek Valley for mutual protection. At Big Horn Post Office all is excitement, which increases from the fact that there are only two companies of troops at the Post of Fort McKenny.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Public Printer has tried hard to make the small balance of the appropriation standing to his credit last until Congress could pass the Deficiency Appropriation bills. He notified the House nearly two weeks ago that he had been obliged to furlough nearly 1,000 employes, and that unless speedy action was taken, all work would have to be suspended. It was expected that the necessary appropriation would be made last week, but the Democratic leaders could not forego the temptation of having a few days political debate, and so the Deficiency bill had to wait. Mr. Defrees says he has not enough money to pay for printing the Congressional Record during the rest of this week, and as it will take at least all this week to get the Appropriation bill out of the House, the outlook for the total suspension of work at the public printing office is decidedly favorable. If anything will induce a Congressman to hurry through the Appropriation bill, the failure to see his remarks printed the next day will accomplish the desired result. It is simply outrageous that the Democratic leaders permit their own folly to throw out of employment hundreds of persons who have no other means for obtaining a living, and the country will understand where the responsibility rests. Mr. Defrees says he will not print the Record a day after the money is expended, and will not run his office into debt, even though it clogs the wheels of legislation.

Ex Senator Lot M. Morrill, of Maine, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, is here, visiting Judge Advocate General Dunn. He gives a glowing account of the future prospects of the Republican party in Maine, and believes that the State will be carried by a rousing majority next November for the Presidential ticket. A great many Democrats were thoroughly disgusted with the course pursued by their leaders in their recent attempt to steal the State Government, and they evinced their dissatisfaction by voting against their party at the late local elections. Mr. Morrill believes that a large number of Democrats will further emphasize their dissatisfaction at the course of their leaders, by voting with the Republicans at the approaching election. Conservative Democrats were thoroughly alarmed at the revolutionary course pursued, and they are determined to put a seal of condemnation upon these acts which will be remembered by the Democratic leaders for a great many years to come.

The Democrats have abandoned all efforts to enact any new financial legislation this session of Congress. In conversation with your correspondent Judge Buckner, Chairman of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, said that the Democratic members of the committee have become thoroughly satisfied that no practical financial legislation can be put through, and that the sentiment of a majority of the members of both the political parties in the House is against any financial legislation whatever. "Such being the case," said Mr. Buckner, "it is folly to talk about doing anything. The Greenback members are after me constantly but I tell them frankly that they can agree upon nothing that would be satisfactory to the House. The truth is they are going to pieces as a political organization, in consequence of the prosperous times, and they want new legislation to save themselves and to help them get re-elected to Congress again. I was out home quite recently, and I found a great change of sentiment among my people. They were apparently dazed at the great revival of business, and, although many of them think as I do, that this business 'boom' is not permanent, and not founded upon hard-pan, they don't want financial legislation to disturb it while it lasts. Our committee has been urged to do something towards repealing the charter of the national banks, but I think it will be time enough to move in this matter two years from now, and, if I am in Congress then, I certainly will do all I can to prevent the national banks from getting their charters renewed. The Greenbackers want to move against the banks now, but our committee is not in favor of doing it, and so no action will be taken. I do not anticipate any financial legislation this session at all, and the committee does not propose to waste its time in considering financial measures. Of course there are private bills to be considered, but nothing of any public importance."

Senator Logan, who has been threatened with lung fever for several days, is considerably better to-day.

Gen. John B. Hawley will leave for Illinois on Friday, to enter actively upon his Gubernatorial canvass. He thinks his resignation is a sufficient answer to the statement that he is in favor of the nomination of Secretary Sherman at Chicago. He says frankly that he is for Grant, and believes that the Illinois delegation will favor his nomination.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—Ex-Senator Busch, of Louisiana, before the exodus committee to-day, said the efforts last winter, by the democrats, to pass the "chain gang law," and the uncertainty of the status of the colored people under democratic rule, prevented many from making the usual labor contracts in January and February this year, and the result is already observable in the large number of colored people who have moved from the planting districts into the cities and towns on the banks of the rivers, so as to take advantage of the opportunities for transportation to the west. He grouped the causes of the exodus under five heads, viz: Fear on the part of the colored people of class legislation against them by democratic legislators; fear of interference with their educational privileges; uncertainty of obtaining homes and insecurity in retaining them, interference with their religious and personal rights, and fear of disfranchisement. He thought it not improbable the protection of his people in all their rights would produce the effect upon them it has produced in the case of the Irish and German and English. Giving figures relative to the great change in the political complexion of the voters in some parishes within the last few years, as shown by the election returns, he instanced Ouachita Parish, where, in 1876, from 1,200 to 1,500 republican and 400 or 500 democratic votes were cast, while at the last election the leading democratic candidate polled 1,976 and the republican candidate only 11 votes. This and similar changes, he said, were accomplished by the democratic returning boards.

In answer to Voorhees, Busch said the reason the colored men did not defend themselves in the parishes where they largely outnumbered the whites was that these whites were the men who inaugurated and sustained the rebellion, and they had kept up their military organizations ever since, and had an army of trained fighters to-day. It was absurd to expect a negro, with a hoe in his right hand, to resist them. Things are quieter now, and there are less persecutions than under republican rule, but men are nevertheless being driven away.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—There was a large attendance at the Sand Lots yesterday afternoon, including many of the respectable classes, drawn by curiosity. Kearney took an entirely new departure. He invited the leaders of the Citizens' Protective Union to meet the leaders of the workingmen on the Sand Lots for the exchange of views, promising them respectful hearing. He also informed his followers that the objects of the Citizens' Union, had been misapprehended—that they intended to use the association for the amelioration of the condition of the city, for the good of the laboring classes, and for the restoration of prosperity; that some unscrupulous men had taken advantage of the movement to create the impression that violent measures against the workingmen were intended, whereas nothing of the kind was meant. His audience received his novel speech undemonstratively.

At the Metropolitan Temple Kalloch adopted Kearney's cue, and spoke to similar effect. It is evident that the Citizens' Union meeting is making its influence felt.

The fire which broke out at 9:15 last night on the steamer City of Sydney, of the Australia line, was extinguished at an early hour this morning. The damage was confined to the compartment in which the fire originated, and will not, it is thought, exceed $10,000 on the cargo. The ship is very little injured, and can be made ready for sea in a day or two. A survey will be held to day, when definite conclusions will be reached. The fire is believed to have originated in a lot of skin clothing by spontaneous combustion.

SHAWNETOWN, Ill., March 15.—Hon. Thos. S. Ridgway has at last yielded to the wishes of his many friends in Southern Illinois, and has announced himself a candidate for Governor, subject to the decision of the Republican State Convention. Mr. Ridgway will receive a strong and earnest indorsement from Southern Illinois.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 15.—Deputy Collector Robison Westfield has obliged Rev. A. B. Dufrine, a French Catholic priest of Holyoke, to settle for selling liquor without a United States license, and Dufrine has left for Canada. He had four casks of liquor in the basement of the church, in the same room where the juvenile school was held, and several persons are ready to testify to having bought of him. Dufrine is the priest who told his people not to patronize Joseph Parker, the hackman, who had displeased him, and so destroyed his business, for which Parker recovered $3 400 damages.

PENTWATER, Mich., March 15.—Two little tugs, the Gem of Pentwater and the Lamont, started from here on a twenty-five mile race. The former arrived at Luddington, their destination, but, after twice going out in search of the Lamont, that tug was finally discovered capsized, with the crew missing and doubtless drowned. Charles Lamont, his son George and Spencer Hill, all of this place, were on the Lamont.

CHICAGO, March 15.—The Socialists had a meeting to-night, heard addresses from the leaders on the Chinese question, and adopted ultra resolutions against immigration. They formulated a petition to the city council to quarantine against the Chinese, and threatened dire things in case they come to Chicago in any numbers.

THE Decatur Y. M. C. A. Bulletin states that the general secretary, Mr. I. J. THE Wabash's business is increasing every day. The heaviest business ever done on the road was done Sunday, and it was necessary to put several passenger conductors on freight trains. THE ladies of Stapp's Chapel send greetings, and solicit your presence at their English Tea party, Thursday night, where you will be presented to Mr. and Mrs. Macawber. Admission 10 cents, which will entitle the holder to one dish of ice cream.

SEVERAL different parties have offered Col. N. A. White $1,000 a year rent for the use of a room on the first floor of the Central House to be used as a saloon, but the Colonel says the room is not for rent for that purpose. He is opposed to the business.

A BLASPHEMOUS gang of drunken roughs paid Mrs. Schoenle's beer hall south of the city a business visit last night, kicked in the door, and made things lively generally. Officers are after the parties.

Examinations Postponed.

On account of the general prevalence of measles in the city it has been thought best to postpone the public examination of the ward schools. The usual examinations will be held at the High School on Thursday and Friday next, commencing at 9 o'clock, a. m., and 2 o'clock, p. m. The public is most cordially invited to be present. E. A. GASTMAN, Supt.

The "Big Snow."

The first big snow of the past winter fell in this city and vicinity after twelve o'clock last night, covering the earth, sidewalks and house tops to a depth of one inch and a half. It is melting rapidly under the searching rays of the sun, but small boys had out their sleds just the same and improved the last opportunity of the season for a slide over the beautiful snow.

All for Grant.

The following communication drawn up by one of the undersigned, callers at this office on last evening, will give the reader a faint idea of how the Republicans of Decatur and Macon county stand on the presidential question:

J. G. STAUFFER,
E. H. DREW,

The Razor-Robbery Case.

On the afternoon of Monday, March 1, Joel L. Robinson, who hailed from Niantic township, while in Decatur became acquainted with Jacob H. Billett, a farm hand in the employ of Jacob Keester, of Hickory townsaip. Billett and Robinson took a walk together, and when the twain had got behind the old Strailey building on East Main street, Robinson whipped out a glistening razor, grasped Billett by the collar of his coat, and compelled him to give up his $2.50 watch and other valuables he had on his person. The men parted soon after, Robinson telling Billett that if he squealed on him he would kill him on sight. That same afternoon Robinson was arrested and lodged in the county jail. On yesterday the prisoner had a preliminary examination before Justice Curtis, and was held to the May term of court in bonds of $200. State's Attorney Buckingham appeared for the People, and W. C. Johns, Esq., for the prisoner. The room was crowded full of witnesses and spectators, and the trial did not end until nearly 6 o'clock. William and Rachel Anderson, father and mother of the prisoner, Andrew Robinson, his brother, and the wife of the prisoner were present, and by their testimony attempted to substantiate the alleged fact that Joel was insane and not responsible for his acts. The fact of the robbery was not denied. The father stated that back in Indiana, while Andrew and Joel were driving an ox team along a steep hillside, the oxen became stubborn, and Andrew, who had a four-pound Indian hatchet made of stone, in hand, hurled the same at the animals, but that the hatchet struck Joel on the back of his head, making a dreadful wound, and a scar that he would carry to his grave. Joel has since that time acted very strangely, and it was generally thought that he was out of his head. The prisoner testified that he had no recollection whatever of the circumstances connected with the robbery, but he did recollect coming to town on the 1st inst. and borrowing 25 cents of a man in opera house block; that he then went into a saloon on the south side of the New Square, and bought two drinks of whisky with a part of the money The justice did not take any stock in the insanity plea, and, as above stated, held the prisoner to the May term of court.—Failing to furnish the $200 bond, Robinson was recommitted to the county jail.

PERSONAL POINTS.

L. Burrows paid Hammond a business visit to-day.

Anthony Baer is stopping at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

James T. Saunders departed for St. Louis at 3:40 on yesterday afternoon.

W. H. Linn has returned from his spring purchasing trip to New York. See the new goods at Linn & Scruggs.

Benjamin Freeman, who has been here on a visit to his brothers for a number of weeks, departed for Boston last night.

Miss Flora Race, who has been passing a number of days with relatives and friends at Springfield, returned home this noon

H. C. Mowry, of Forsyth, wrote his John Hancock on the register at Priest's Hotel to-day.

Miss Mamie Haller, the accomplished daughter of Dr. Haller, of Vandalia, is in the city on a visit to Mrs. A. E. Harrison, and other friends.

Norman Failing, of Macon, was in town yesterday and gave us a pleasant call as usual. All quiet at his town, and business lively.

John G. Stauffer, of the Guards, who represents the Illinois Printing Company at Danville, started out to-day on a month's business trip through Egypt.

John B. McDonald, late proprietor of the old square restaurant, is now clerking at Milam's Bakery and Restaurant, where he will be pleased to welcome all his old patrons and friends.

W. J. Nichols, western passenger agent of the Indianapolis, Decatur and Springfield Route, with headquarters in this city, gave us a business call to-day. He is a native of the Nutmeg State, and for the past ten years has been connected with the M., K. & T. road.

R. B. Gruelle, of Arcola, was in the city to-day. He is the artist who has been awarded the contract for painting a full length portrait of the late Judge Gallagher, to be hung up in the circuit court room in this city. He will not commence painting the portrait for a week or two, and after he gets fairly started he hopes to finish it inside of six weeks. It will be a work of pride with the artist, and we have no doubt but the portrait will be as perfect and life-like as it is possible to make it.

The Frolicues.

The Weathersby-Goodwin Froliques will present "Hobbies" at the opera house next Monday night. The New York Tribune is good authority. Hear what it says:

One of the most amusing pieces that has been upon the stage in this city in a long time is Mr. Woolf's new comedy, "Hobbies," which was produced on Monday at Haverly's Theater. It is one of that class of works which have no serious object, and has but one excuse for existing—namely, fun. "Hobbies" tells how several young people wish to have private theatricals, how their idea is opposed by their elders, and how they ingeniously overcome this opposition. The author has made adroit allusion to many of the topics of the day which have a ridiculous side, and he manages to invest it all with an air of absurdity. Miss Eliza Weathersby, who acts as a lady's maid, is bright, pretty, vivacious, and full of fun. Miss Jennie Weatherby is amusing, and Miss Venie Clancy sings several songs prettily. Mr. N. C. Goodwin, Jr., a clever young actor, has a part of the richest comedy type. He was good in his imitations of a number of well-known actors. Besides this he also succeeded as a grotesque dancer. The piece is prettily put upon the stage, and the music is pleasing.

Military Inspection.

Major George S. Dana, Assistant Inspector General of the Second Brigade Illinois National Guards, started out on his annual tour of inspection of companies of the state "milish," on Monday, the 9th instant. He will visit Decatur on Monday next, 22d inst., and will inspect the Guards at 7 p. m. on that day, and the Grenadiers at 9 p. m., two hours later.—The respective captains of the companies named have issued written notices to each member of the separate organizations to appear at their armories at the hours stated in full uniform. The code requires that fifty men in each company must be in ranks on such occasions. We have no doubt but that the full roster of each company will be present, as there is a noticeable lively interest in military matters manifested among the "boys."

Newsy Notes from Forsyth.

EDITORS REPUBLICAN:—Considerable change has already taken place in our little village and vicinity this spring. Mr. Frank Hays leaves this week for Kansas, and Mr. Berman for Storm Lake, Iowa, and last week Dr. A. McBride started for Carthage, Mo. We wish them all success in their new homes.

We are pleased to welcome Mr. V. Benton among us as one of our enterprising merchants, he having purchased the stock of goods formerly owned by his father, A. G. Benton, and greatly replenished it He is now prepared to furnish his customers with the best of everything.

We had the pleasure of listening to a splendid sermon last evening from the Rev. Mr. Reynolds, in which he completely destroyed the Universalist doctrine, and showed clearly that the Bible teaches that there is a future punishment for the wickedness of this life.

Wanted, some one to donate a ton of ice to pack Daisy in until he cools off.

We are soon to have a telegraph office in our little village. Just when it will be put in position we are not informed, but it will be some time soon.

Glad to know that our tax collector has made his returns all in good shape, and that he succeeded splendidly in getting nearly all of the personal, and considerable of the real estate tax.

Dr. Hall has removed to the house vacated by Dr. McBride, and has also removed his office from the post office to his residence. Q. Q. QUIGLY.

Bob Burdette's Dream.

And I dreamed I died, and went to heaven. I thought I had just fifteen brains, and all the way up to the gate I was trying to straighten them out, and I thought I would go mad. When I got up there, the gate was wide open, and all sorts of people were streaming in just as they pleased. I hadn't the cheek to think I had a right to go in without any credentials or examination, so I hung back, looking for St. Peter. And while I was waiting I hope to die if Bob Ingersoll didn't come along and walk right in, and he looked as if he were mighty glad to get there. Presently I saw St. Peter, right by the gate his head bent down and his eyes fixed on his knees. I told him my name and where I was from, and asked if I might go in. He didn't say anything, and I began to feel rather streaked. So I said it again, a little louder. Still he made no reply. Then I took him by the shoulder, for I was getting pretty anxious, and I began to tell it all over again. It frightened me when he shook me off. "9, 11, 4, 14, 13, 7—oh, get out of this, you and your name; if you hadn't bothered me I'd have got it the next move."

"Meadville! Change cars for Oil City and Franklin! This train stops twenty minutes for dinner!"

"Now," the fat passenger said, solemnly, "I am never going to fool with that Gem puzzle again. Not once more."

Rev. Geo. H. Thayer, of Bourbon, Ind., known to every one in that vicinity as a most influential citizen and Christian minister of the M. E. Church, says: "I wish everybody to know that I consider that both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Drs. Matchett & France, physicians and druggists of the same place, say: "It is having a tremendous sale, and is giving perfect satisfaction such as nothing else has done. "THE GREAT BOOM."

Eighteen hundred and seventy-nine will long be remembered as the time when all kinds of business and financial prosperity seemed to spring into new life. Merchants are finding plenty of ready customers for their wares, mechanics meet with ready employment at fair wages, and the farmers are receiving advanced prices for their products, and it is acknowledged by all that in no part of our country are the evidences of prosperity and comfort so marked as along the entire line of the "Old Reliable" Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad. And to attain these results the management of the Hannibal & St. Joseph Railroad have given their careful thought and attention, and the rapid growth of business, and increasing wealth of the community along the whole line are evidences that their efforts are fully appreciated. We are, as usual, running in connection with the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad through Day Coaches, Reclining Chairs (free), and Pullman Sleeping Cars from Chicago via Quincy to Missouri river points. Also through Day Coaches from Toledo and Indianapolis, with Pullman Sleeping Cars from Toledo via Danville, Springfield and Quincy, to Kansas City, Atchison and St. Joseph without change. Families traveling with children will find it greatly to their advantage to take the "Old Reliable" H. & St. Jo. R. R., as no changes or transfers are made.
